National Convention - Friday Tour – June 23, 2017

Old Town Trolley City Tour

with stop at the Coronado Ferry Landing for no-host lunch/shopping

$35/person

(Includes 15% service charge – this is a discounted adult group rate)

9:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Old Town Trolley Tours will pick us up Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. at the hotel and take us on a two-hour, 25 mile fully narrated City Tour of San Diego and Coronado. They will stop at the Coronado Ferry Landing at 11:30 a.m. for no-host lunch and shopping opportunities at the 25 available restaurants and shops. The trolleys will depart the Landing at 1:00 p.m. in order to return to the hotel at 1:30 p.m.

CROSSING THE CORONADO BRIDGE

Waterfront shopping center with art galleries, apparel retailers, fine dining and casual eateries.

Food Choices at the Ferry Landing - <http://www.coronadoferrylandingshops.com>

A perfect chance to soak up some atmosphere while enjoying lunch, watching the ships on San Diego Bay and taking in one of the best views of the San Diego skyline. This will be a great addition to your tour experience!

Peohe's offers fine dining or an outdoor bar with umbrella tables and a separate bar menu.

In addition to full service restaurants, there are casual eateries offering seating after you order at a counter, and some are just takeout. Listed below are a few options. For a more detailed description please check out various websites – one of which is listed above.

Village Pizza has a large amount of restaurant seating and also a side area where you can quickly buy a pizza slice, among other items for takeout.

Lil Piggy's Bar-B-Q offers a few tables and takeout.

Candelas on the Bay – Mexican food – dine in or takeout.

Spiros Gyros Greek Café – dine in or takeout.

Dessert anyone? How about The Cold Stone Creamery, Coronado Cupcakery or Choco Amore?

If you order takeout, there are umbrella tables around open patio areas where you can enjoy your lunch or just sit and chat.

National Convention – Saturday Tour for Guests – June 24, 2017

Education and entertainment await you when you walk aboard the USS Midway. Explore this aircraft carrier, and enjoy interactive exhibits, self-guided tours, and flight simulators. The museum is located right along the Navy Pier in downtown San Diego.

USS Midway Museum

Self-guided audio tour fee: $15/person

This is the discounted adult group rate.

Please indicate number of guests joining this tour on the DTC Convention Registration Form.

Include $15 per guest with registration fees.

Enjoy no-host lunch on board: Museum features the Fantail Café...casual patio dining. Family-pleasing menu will satisfy your budget as well ($6-$11).

Transportation from hotel to USS Midway Museum and return trip will be provided by host province.

Tour group will leave hotel Saturday morning at 9:30 am... and will depart from pier for return to hotel at 2:00 pm.

Riverwalk Golf Club...offers affordable
